

2016 BECC POSTER PRESENTERS

Pat Aloise-Young, Colorado State University: Barriers to DC Micro-Grid Technology

John Anderson, Center for Sustainable Energy: Early Plug-In Electric Vehicle Consumers: Comparisons across Three States

Dustin Bailey, Navigant: Don't touch that!! The Linchpins of SEM Programs: What can make SEM Efforts Thrive or Fail

Gbemisola Banjoko, University of Central Lancashire: Cultural Influences on Domestic Energy Consumption: A Comparison of Behaviours and Attitudes Between Social Groups in the UK

Ryan Bliss, Research Into Action, Inc.: How NEEA is Changing Trade Ally Practices in the Northwest

Daniel Bresette, Alliance to Save Energy: Doing More While Using Less: Energy Productivity Is an Effective Framework for Communicating the Benefits of Energy Efficiency

Maggie Buffum, Cadmus: Schools Get Schooled on SEM

Benjamin Carlson, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs: Serve the Mission and Improve Sustainability with Employee Innovation

Jennifer Cole, Duke University: Evaluation of a Campus-Based Energy Conservation Competition: How Weather Trumps a Financial Incentive

Julia Fiebig, ABA Global Initiatives: Leader Communication and Employee Values: Influence on Performance of ERBs

Don Flynn, CB&I: Energy Advantage Program: Creating Small Medium Business Market Lift

Luisa Freeman, DNV GL: Designing Home Energy Management Programs to Drive Customer Adoption

Fiona Fylan, Leeds Beckett University: The Anti-Rebound Effect: Persistent Effects of Fuel Poverty

Nathaniel Geiger, Penn State University: Not in My Backyard? Effective Arguments for Promoting Green Fees When the Issue Is Personally Relevant

Carrie Gill, University of Rhode Island: The Effects of In-School Energy Education on At-Home Energy Consumption

Nichole Hanus, Carnegie Mellon University: Leveraging Parent Power for Utility Accountability and Clean Energy

Kristin Heinemeier, University of California, Davis, Energy Efficiency Center: Sharpening the Tip of the Spear: Engaging Effective HVAC Workers

Lauren Hennessy, Stanford University, Office of Sustainability: Incentivizing Individual Action: Engaging the Campus in Sustainable Behaviors

Christopher Jones, BCT Partners: Power for the Public Good: Energy Race and Class in the United States

Manorge Joseph, Building Performance Lab: Dashboard Design: Bridge between Energy and Building Automation Data

Darrin Kayser, Booz Allen Hamilton: No Meters, No Problem: Proving ROI without Metered Data

Anna Kelly, Cadmus: New Tools for Assessing SEM Programs

Hidenori Komatsu, Central Research Institute of Electric Power Industry: A Framework for Automatically Generating Energy Reports by Using Smart Meter Data to Promote Energy Conservation in Small and Medium Enterprises

Alica LaValle, University of British Columbia: Evaluating a Place-based Educational Videogame on Climate Change for its Effects on Fun, Learning, and Behavior

Bronwyn Lazowski, University of Waterloo: Evaluating Residential Engagement with Smart Grid Technologies

Jiwoong Lee, Korea Energy Economics Institute: Heterogeneous Impacts of Home Energy Efficiency on Housing Decisions in Korea

Anna McCreery, Elevate Energy: Hourly Electricity Pricing Programs: How Much Does Behavior Matter for Cost Savings?

Brianna Middlewood, The Pennsylvania State University: Green Teams for Green Organizations

Ayako Mikami, Tokyo Gas Co., Ltd.: Difficulty Evaluation of Energy-saving Behavior Changes seen from the Sensitivity Measurement

Rachel Murray, DNV GL: Shining a Spotlight on the Shadow Economy: HVAC Changeouts in California

Deborah Olisky, DNV GL: Prepayment: A Win-Win Way of Doing Business?

Sarah Outcault, University of California, Davis, Western Cooling Efficiency Center: If You Can't Take the Heat: How Space Conditioning Drives Social Interactions and Cultural Change

Kaitlin Phelps, Action Research: Framing Messages to Promote Residential Energy Assessments

Christopher Plum, Center for Energy and Environment: M & V of Behavioral Savings Using Smart Meters

Jeremiah Robinson, DNV GL: Bad Boiler Behavior Bonanza

Todd Rogers, Energy Training Solutions: When Students Take the Lead: Results from an Innovative Pilot Where Students Led the Way to Energy Savings at School and Home

Katie Ryder, E Source: Claiming Savings from Prepay Programs

Ashok Sekar, Rochester Institute of Technology: Personalizing Utility Efficiency Programs: Case Study of Televisions

Marcel Stadelmann, ETH Zürich: Do Energy Labels Influence Private Purchase Decisions for Household Appliances? A Field Experiment in Switzerland

Gary Swan, National Energy Foundation: Deemed Savings for Behavioral Actions in School Kits Programs

Janet Swim, The Pennsylvania State University: Collaborative Community Academic Partnership: Encouraging Residential Selection of Renewable Energy Suppliers

Kevin Thompson, ICF International: Analyzing the Potential of Behavior-Based Energy Efficiency Resources in an Electric Utility's Commercial DSM Portfolio

Bryan Urban, Fraunhofer CSE: Insights from Connected Homes: A New England Thermostat Pilot

Joy Wang, Georgia Institute of Technology: Meta-Analysis of Residential Rebound Effect

Adriane Wolfe, Quinn Energy/University of Michigan, Ann Arbor: A Case Study of the Measured Demand Savings of Community Dinners

Yoshie Yagita, The University of Tokyo: Home Energy Report Using HEMS Data in Japan

Richard Young, Pacific Gas and Electric, Food Service Technology Center: From the Frying Pan into the Fire: Rewiring the Commercial Foodservice Industry
